CORAM : ABHAY S. OKA, J.
DATED : 19th October, 2005.

P.C.:

1. Heard the learned Senior Counsel for the Applicant and the learned A.P.P. for the State. I have also heard the learned Advocate appearing for the complainant. As of today the sections of the Indian Penal Code which are applied are as regards bailable offences. The learned A.P.P. states that the investigation is in progress and if necessary 72 hours notice will be given to the Applicant in the event the Respondent desires to arrest the Applicant. Accordingly the following order is passed:

2. In the event the Respondent desires to arrest the Applicant in connection with complaint bearing No.MA 513/05 filed in the Court of the Judicial Magistrate First Class, Barshi, by Balasaheb Korake, the Respondent will given 72 hours clear advance notice to the Applicant. If such a notice is given it is always open for the Applicant to apply for anticipatory bail before the appropriate Court.
